MEMBERSHIP MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

"Wise men say it is better to give than to receive," said Vice President Bill Atkinson as he told members of I-S that their Welfare Board was about to reward five social service agencies for their outstanding contributions to the Union's members and the community at large.

Hungarian Aid

RWDSU President Max Greenberg, on receipt of Local I-S' $2,000 check for distribution to agencies assisting Hungarian refugees, extended to his audience of 4,000 his "heartfelt thanks".

He said the check was "just one more example of the wonderful support we've been getting from I-S."

Stating that "the myth of communism as a political ideology has been laid to rest forever as a result of the terrible tragedy of Hungary", President Greenberg said that "the significance of this contribution is far greater than the amount."

Outlining the International union's aim of providing housing and jobs for Hungarian refugees, in addition to immediate dollar aid, Greenberg declared that "our project is gaining momentum."

The $2,000 will be divided among Protestant, Jewish and Catholic agencies working among the refugees both in the United States and abroad. A portion of the amount will also go to CARE, which will provide food packages for those who need them.

Deborah Sanatorium

"We of Deborah Sanatorium are deeply grateful for your contribution for the furtherance of our program. Deborah Sanatorium provides—on a non-sectarian basis and without charge—hospital care for victims of tuberculosis, heart disease and lung cancer. We depend entirely upon support of this kind to enable us to continue our work. We thank you", said Mr. William Mintz.

"The agencies to be honored were not chosen lightly", he declared. "We all owe a vote of thanks to the Welfare Board for the effort they put into making these selections."

"These agencies were of great help to members of Local I-S during our strike last April. They also do an excellent year-round job in the communities—and we of Local I-S are part of those communities.

"Because of this, the Welfare Board has voted to give each of these agencies $250 from funds derived from the members' payments of Union fines.

Community Service Society

"We of the Queen Chapter of the Community Service Society of New York are very proud to be one of the agencies selected by your Welfare Board to receive this gift," said Mr. Ernest Smith.

"We hope, by our services, to continue to warrant your support and confidence."

"The fact that we are also presenting a check of $2,000 for aid to Hungarian refugees, given by the members in response to an Executive Board appeal, is another tribute to our members and in a class with our work for the Greater New York Fund."

Vice President Atkinson then

Jewish Family Service

"As a representative of an agency that exists to fill community needs, it is indeed a pleasure to be honored by an organization that fills another important community need. We thank you", said Mr. Harry Girsch of Jewish Family Service, Inc. as he accepted the Welfare Board's $250 check.

called the roll of Welfare Board members, whose work and vision mean so much to I-S members. They are: Chairman Ceil Curry, Jack Fox, Louise Bunkovsky, Leo Livingston, Andrew Feliccia, Frances Petluck, Riva Lowenstein and Alice Donohue.

Salvation Army

"I want to thank you and tell you that we appreciate your recognition of our services to you and the community."

"We regard it as a joy to serve our fellow man", said Colonel Horace Wetherly accepting the I-S gift to the Nassau County chapter of the Salvation Army.

The State of the Union

"One of the very best we have ever had", is the way most people summed up the general membership meeting of January 8th.

In Memoriam

The following are the names of members of Local I-S who died during the year 1956.

As Vice President Phil Hoffstein called the roll, the membership honored their memories with prayerful silence.

Mae Bernstein, FSM	April 27
Montgomery Blake, MTE	Aug. 29
John Berquist, NC	Feb. 6
Gertrude Borookow, 26 Dept.	May 13
Pat Dorris, HDP	Dec. 31
Michael Duval, 75 Dept.	May 20
Irene Draddy, NVD	Mar. 20
Elias Dougherty, MTF	Jan. 28
Emma Daly, P2	April 23
Harold Hyndman, MTE	June 11
Lulu Henes, NC	Dec. 12
Richard Kelly, HDF	Feb. 1
Margaret Kirwan, 117 Dept.	Dec. 6
Stephen Lynch, HNP	Feb. 10
Katella Lewis, 13 Dept.	Sept. 22
Carrie Novatt, 12 Dept.	Nov. 25
Rita Notory, 42 Dept.	Oct. 19
Frances O'Rourke, Tables	Dec. 2
Helen Parisen, P5	Feb. 2
Lucille Prahar, 11 Dept.	Dec. 8 ('55)
Anna Perryman, 74 Dept.	May 27
Charlotte Regnvall, 117 Dept.	Dec. 6
John Zang, 75 Dept.	July 26

Loud and enthusiastic applause greeted President Sam Kovenetsky as he told his audience of the continuing reaction of many old-time labor leaders to the April strike.

"Many of them have told me", the president said, "that they were rejuvenated at the sight of so many women doing yeomen's work on the picketlines."

"I have had just one answer for all of them—and I'll say it here, too. Where would we be without the women!"

Vigilance

"Our strike strengthened the members," Kovenetsky declared, "and we must preserve that strength. We cannot afford to sit on our laurels."

"Macy's management, in the persons of Mr. Bingham, Mr. Walter and Mr. Fischer never give up seeking the means to undermine our strength and position. That is why we must be vigilant twenty-four hours a day—not out of fear, but because we understand the role of the company and their desire to be free to do whatever they want with and to you, without 'interference' from your Union."

"We can best show the company that we won't step backward, by showing our determination to move constantly forward and by making sure that the contract Macy's was forced to sign in 1956 is fully enforced—by making sure the points we fought for are lived up to."

"It is no good when we see white flowers doing the work of Union members. And it is not good when Union members allow executives to do their work. Executives have a place. Let them stay there! Executives have a job. Let them do it! But don't let executives get away with breaking the contract you walked the sidewalks to win!"

Roosevelt Field

Turing his attention to outstanding problems confronting Local I-S, President Kovenetsky said, "So long as Roosevelt Field remains unorganized it will remain a thorn in our sides."

"We must bring the people at the Roosevelt Field store under the banner of Local I-S and under a contract with Macy's just as quickly as possible—both for their sake and for ours."

"To do this job we must have a still greater response to the many calls we have made for volunteers to visit Roosevelt Field workers both in the store and at their homes!"

Steward Program

To carry out and advance the Union's program, the president told the members of a stepped-up training program for Shop Stewards.

"I beg you," he said, "to see that your Steward takes part in this program. That he attends the classes and the meetings that are designed to increase his ability to represent you and your Union. Only in this way can you get the greatest good out of the contract you fought so hard to win!"

Other Unions

Reviewing the positive aid and encouragement that Local I-S got from other unions during the strike, President Kovenetsky told the members that, "Your officers and Executive Board will continue to seek a still better working relationship with other unions, both in department stores and other industries."

"There might well be other battles in New York's department stores before our own contract expires, and we know that even as our victories are reflected in the gains they achieve, if we can play a positive part helping them advance, we too will benefit!"

Shortly after polls opened for Herald Square voting members thronged to cast their ballots. With only one office contested, voting was display of support for Union.

points. Five voting machines at the Union office and one at each of the other polling places kept lines of voters moving quickly.

Elections and Objections Committee Chairman James Roche and all of the committee's members were roundly complimented on their efficient conduct of the voting.

In turn, Chairman Roche praised the members for their co-operation in helping to make this "one of the best elections we have ever had."

Flatbush, Parkchester and White Plains completed the voting on Thursday, January 24th. Gertrude Greene, Peggy Galvin and Russ Bagley, Elections and Objections Committee representatives at each of the stores, reported "maximum cooperation" and heavy turnouts.

Jamaica voted on Friday, and committee representative Murray Rimland turned in a similar report for his store.

Within a half hour of the 10 P.M. closing of polls on Friday, January 25th, the Elections and Objections Committee had completed the five-store tally and certified the outcome.

Because there was only one contested position, Administration Slate candidates were forced to wage an uphill battle against apathy and a tendency on the part of many to consider the results "in the bag".

In a series of non-partisan speeches and articles, most of which appeared in the Local 1S NEWS, President Kovenetsky and Vice Presidents Hoffstein and Atkinson called on the members to vote as a means of showing continued support for the Union and its program.

In one article, which began to stimulate active interest in the campaign, the vice presidents wrote that, "A really solid turnout of members in the coming elections will be another way of showing Macy's that the same kind of strength and unity we displayed last April is still effective. It will be another way of saying that our Union is not a matter of personalities, but of organization. That we can differ amongst ourselves on many things, but that we are united in our determination to keep our Union as strong as we possibly can."

James Ziccardi, whose campaign seemed to arouse more antagonism than support among the members, campaigned on a platform which stated that his "sole aim is to assure the membership of Local 1-S a program of reform with no other desire than the right to work in dignity and without threats of abuse which they have been absorbing because of the present administration".

Ziccardi's election bid was climaxed by a small rally at St. Nicholas Arena where a collection of ex-prizefighters appeared in his half.

It was apparent early in the campaign, however, that the members of Local 1-S were not in his corner. Vocal proof of this was given at the January 8th membership meeting when Ziccardi was loudly booed for statements which the members obviously considered derogatory to their accomplishments during the April strike. Ziccardi's position was that the members had been misled into going on strike and that the same results could have been gained over the bargaining table.

1-S Offers Expert Aid on Income Tax—at No Charge

In keeping with its consistent program of giving every possible type of aid to its members, Local 1-S again offers free of charge assistance in the preparation of 1956 Federal Income Tax returns.

The Union's accountant, Mr. Lewis Goltz and his associates Mr. Elias Furst and Mr. William Sells, will be at the Union office on Wednesday February 27 and Wednesday March 6 and 13 from 3:30 P.M. until there is no one else on line.

Members taking advantage of this service should be sure to bring with them their statement of taxes withheld for 1956. Mr. Goltz urged that all members who are claiming deductions for medical expenses assemble their figures before coming to the Union office. This advance preparation cuts in half the amount of time needed to complete a tax report and assures better service for all.

Another assurance of fair and fast service is the number system in use at the Union office. When you come in for tax aid, be sure to get a number and you will be called in turn.

Winners Extend Thanks to Members

The following statement was made by President Sam Kovenetsky in behalf of the Administration Slate following announcement of the results of the January 24-25 election of officers:

All of us who were candidates under the banner of the Administration Slate are deeply grateful for the generous support given us by the membership.

We, as officers of Local 1-S, have always said that our Union's victories are tributes to the high level of understanding of our members.

As officers, we have had the duty and responsibility for planning Union program, of winning your approval and mobilizing your active support for the advancement of our common interests.

In a very real sense, therefore, we view your support of the Administration Slate as a vote of confidence in yourself and the programs you have adopted as well as the leadership you have followed.

As officers, we are deeply conscious of the trust that you—the members—have placed in us. We are well aware of what our united strength has achieved for us over the past years.

We are equally well aware of how much yet remains to be done. We came before you, pledged to unceasingly serve you in the continuing fight for a better way of life.

We are proud to have merited your confidence and will make every effort to continue to prove worthy of it.

In a separate statement to his supporters, Vice President Hoffstein said:

I am genuinely grateful for the support given the Administration Slate as a whole.

I am more than gratified for the support given to me individually—since the only election contest was for the post of First Vice President.

This in my opinion was not only a vote of confidence for me, but for the work of all the officers and the Union as a whole. Thank you.

Prevent Polio! 1-S Giving Salk Shots at $1.50

The first round of shots in the Local 1-S Polio Prevention Program will be given by the Union's medical panel at the Union office between the hours of 10:30 A.M. to 2 P.M. and 5 P.M. to 7 P.M. on Tuesday, February 5th.

All members of Local 1-S and members of their family can get their inoculations at that time at $1.50 per shot.

Those who have had previous Salk inoculations are urged to bring their shot record with them so they can be brought up to date.

1-S Basketball Team Facing Strong Competition for League Honors

The recently formed Local 1-S basketball team made its debut with a 53 to 58 loss to an aggressive Lord & Taylor squad on January 11 on the Stuyvesant High School court.

This was followed with a 64 to 48 loss to Federal Adhesive one week later at the same place, where all games are played on Friday evenings.

With time for only one workout before swinging into competition, the Local 1-S outfit has shown early signs of being a strong contender for league honors, despite its early setbacks.

The team consists of: Oscar Babs, Andy Brown, Ralph Campbell, Nick Delea, Bill Evans, Joe Edwards, Jim Haywood, Eddie Jones, Ernie Knight, Marvin Leiberman, Henry Mancini, Harvey

Richardson, Tom Staple and Harold Young.

The team, which was formed after Brother Young called for volunteers through an article in the 1-S NEWS, would welcome a rooting section of members. They play Bloomingdales at 8:15 P.M. on Feb. 1st, a Brooklyn Area team at the same time on Feb. 8th, and meet Federal Adhesive again on Feb. 15th.

OFFICIAL NOTICE Divisional Meeting Schedule

This is the only official notice to be given for Divisional Meetings for all members including Saturdays-onlies and Fractionals.

TO THE EDITOR

More readers have sent in their comments about the Local 1-S NEWS. We would all like to know what YOU think about your newspaper. How about dropping us a line?

The Editor

I think the Local 1-S NEWS is very good reading and am more than glad when I receive it, because it keeps me informed as to what is being done for the betterment of the members.

Jennie Belding, C252

As a Saturday-only I depend on the Local 1-S NEWS for news regarding our Union. I always read it as soon as it arrives.

Sincerely,
Marie Korvel, W4

I truly enjoy reading the paper, and being a Saturday-only it is my best source of information concerning Local 1-S and Macy's.

Wishing the best of everything for all of you.

Yours truly,
Mary Bakerges, 534 Dept.

I look forward to receiving the newspaper. It keeps me posted with everything worthwhile going on at Macy's or in the Union.

Mary Kelly, RMMW

SO HELPFUL

I am writing this note to let you know how grateful I am that our Union is so helpful to one in need.

A few weeks ago I was actually bumping my head against the wall regarding a welfare problem. I was getting a big run-around until my co-worker told me to call Mr. Fox of the Welfare Board and he in turn asked me to see Mr. Levine, who with one telephone call solved the problem and a great load was lifted off my shoulders.

Thank you again for placing this service at our disposal.

Very truly yours,
Rita Newman, 119 Dept.

FINE WORK

I would like to wish you all a Happy New Year and to thank you for your fine work on behalf of Saturday-onlies.

Fraternally yours,
Charles Gombach, Jr., 41 Dept.

DELUGE

I would like to thank the many, many people who deluged me with cards of well wishes while I was out ill.

I couldn't possibly thank all on an individual basis.

Despite the fact that I made every effort to keep my absence unobserved, all I can say is that there is a big leak in the Office Division—for which at this time I am ever grateful.

Dot Pandolfini
